

STAG DO PLANNING CHECKLIST

From Rock My Wedding

YOUR STAG DO DATE:

4 TO 6 MONTHS OUT START RESEARCH & PLANNING

- Consult the groom.
- Make a guest list (and a group chat).
- Agree on the stag party budget.
- Pick a date and send save the dates.
- Get researching into themes and locations (especially if abroad).

3 MONTHS OUT GET BOOKING

- Decide on the stag party type and theme.
- Draft a stag-do agenda.
- Book the venue and/or accommodation.
- Book group activities and reserve any restaurants/bars (don't forget dietary requirements).
- Arrange for catering and other services.
- Keep an eye on the price (make sure you cover the cost of the groom and leave contingency for any cancellations - any money left over can go on booze).

2 MONTHS OUT POLISH THE PLAN

- Check in with the guests and send the itinerary.
- Confirm all the bookings (especially if some stags have to book transport themselves).
- Take care of the booze.
- Organise the stag party decor using our stag party ideas.
- Collect a deposit from all of the stags and get a payment plan in place.
- Pick up the decor and sort out goodie bags for the stags.

2 WEEKS TO GO... ALMOST THERE

- Download our stag party playlist.
- Collect the final balance of the money.
- Find some fun games to play in case you need to fill any gaps in time like our Mr & Mrs Quiz.
- Send out a reminder of dress codes and any must-have items.

1 WEEK TO GO... GET READY TO (STAG) PARTY

- Pack the essentials.
- Don't forget to tell the groom where he needs to be and what he needs to bring.
- Reiterate meeting points, what times you'll be eating etc.

THE DAY OF

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT

- Have a good time (and make sure others do, too).
- Set up the games, activities, food, decor.
- Ensure the groom is relaxed and happy.
